TACRAO FALL 2017 NEWSLETTER

IRENE'S IDEAS

BY IRENE ROBINSON, TACRAO PRESIDENT

As I sit here and write my last TACRAO newsletter article as your President, I am thinking of all of the past presidents who did the same. I followed in the footsteps of some great people, like Margaret Dechant who inspires me with her spunk and tenacity, like Dave Stones whose calm demeanor led us through trying technological years, like Trey Hattaway who taught me that to lead well was to listen even better, like Berri O'Neal whose infectious laughter lead us through hard decisions and like sweet Darla English whose love for everyone calmed us during difficult discussions. I can only hope that I've come close to leaving the mark that you have on this wonderful organization. I thank you, members of TACRAO for the confidence you bestowed in me to serve as your President in 2016-2017. I will cherish this time for the rest of my life!

The best part of this year was serving the membership alongside a wonderful group of people – your TEC for 2016-2017. God couldn't have blessed me more than with such a fantastic group of officers to work with – Joe, Darla, Michelle, Jeremy, Leticia and Andi – your dedication to this organization goes beyond measure – thank you, thank you, thank you for a wonderful year!!

In this past year, your TEC has worked tirelessly to bring you a new membership database and website, as well as working with your LAC to put together a conference that is unforgettable. The sandy beaches of South Padre Island will be overrun by TACRAO members from the east, west, north and south as we all begin “Charting the Course for Student Success.” There is still time to register, so if you haven't don't so already, please do register today! Our Vice Presidents have a lineup of sessions that have never been presented at TACRAO before and they will elaborate more in their articles, so I will not steal their thunder.

Your 2017 local arrangements committee, led by the very efficient and hardworking Co-Chairs, Maggie Hinojosa and Griselda Castilla has great events planned for Battle of the Regions, Monday night's event Boats and Bets and for Tuesday Sweet Tune Karaoke. Their huge committee comprised of members, not only from South Texas, but from across the state stand ready to show everyone a sun-filled time in less than a week!

See you all this weekend at

DARLA'S DIALOGUE –MY SWAN SONG BY DARLA ENGLISH, TACRAO PAST- PRESIDENT

TACRAO friends,

This newsletter article will be my “swan song.” I am sailing off of the TEC and completing my past –presidency at the end of the South Padre Island 2017 conference. It has been my distinct honor, privilege, and blessing, to have served as your President-elect, President, and now past-President. Our organization is unique, special, really big, and dear to my heart! It has provided me more than I could have ever hoped in professional development, but most of all in developing an enormous network of colleagues and friends. If any of you reading this newsletter are new to TACRAO, new to the profession, or a first-time attendees at the 2017 conference, my hope for the future, is that you will grow into the leaders who will continue leading our organization in providing more of these wonderful professional development opportunities, mentorship, and support.

I have two final duties to complete as past-president:

Constitution and Bylaws updates – I hope you have seen the proposed constitution and bylaw change (emailed through the listserv) proposed by the TEC to add an additional member to the TACRAO Executive Committee, a Vice President for Information Technology. The TEC received this idea, which stemmed from a previous TACRAO Town Hall meeting, and fleshed out what the position would entail. Modern times are requiring more and more in the IT support area for our organization, so we agree with the TACRAO membership’s request to consider this new position, and are bringing it to you for a vote at the 2017 conference.

Newcomers Event – Mentor Mentee Mixer at TACRAO 2017 - This is the opportunity for our “seasoned” TACRAO members to mentor our first time attendees, and help them get on their feet with professional growth in our organization. More information will be coming via the list-serve on how our seasoned TACRAO members can be a part of this at the conference.

It will occur Sunday afternoon, November 5, at 5:00 p.m. See the conference agenda for more information about the location. Please try to arrange your travel to where you can take advantage of this opportunity to make a connection with someone – both the mentor and mentee will grow from the experience.

Time is a fleeting thing, and we are just a small moment on the timeline! Make the most of every day in your job! Learn to really enjoy your co-workers! Look forward to greeting your students and helping them fulfill their educational goals, and take time to get to know wonderful colleagues all over the state of Texas through TACRAO! Thank you again for allowing me the opportunity to serve you.

My custom has been to sign off my newsletter articles with song lyrics that fit the feeling/situation. Completing my term on the TEC makes me think of this song from the movie “Dirty Dancing” which describes my feelings as my term comes to an end:

“I had the time of my life, and I owe it all to you!”

May God bless you all, always!

Darla

PAPARI'S PONDERINGS

BY JOE PAPARI, PRESIDENT-ELECT

I can't believe it's already the fall season, but I am energized and excited about the TACRAO conference just weeks away.

program will be available on the TACRAO 2017 Guidebook app is available now. I encourage you to download the app before you arrive at the conference.

For the past several months, I've been busy contacting and appointing members to serve on the 2017-2018 Standing and Session Planning Committees. I've been able to utilize all of the members who completed the "I'm Available" form. I appreciate the great response and willingness of our volunteers to serve our organization. TACRAO's success depends highly on your willingness to serve and volunteer! For those members who will be serving on the committees in 2017-2018, please be on the lookout for an email from me very soon indicating the day, time and location for the Committee

Luncheon.

Have you seen the new TACRAO website? If you have not visited the new site, check it out, but please follow the instructions for "Member First Time Login." The website has been a major project for us and the system has some awesome features. TEC members have worked diligently to setup the new website and to transition the membership database to the new system. Irene and I will demo the system on Wednesday during our session.

It has been a great pleasure serving you as President-Elect this past year, and I really appreciate Irene Robinson and Darla English for their expert direction and support!

SOUTHEAST TEXAS SOUND BITES

BY AKILAH MARTIN, ALVIN COLLEGE

Greetings from Alvin Community College! Our college has come together to support our faculty and staff impacted by raising a total of $10,000 which was matched by our ACC Foundation for a grand total of $20,000 in funds that have been used to aid our students and staff affected.

ACC is proud to serve our community and our students, and we look forward to a great semester!

ACC's student Denise Aviles, of Angleton, loads donated food and toiletry items for Hurricane Harvey victims

Greetings from the UTHealth Registrar's Office located in the bustling Texas Medical Center. Come visit us here in Houston and we will show you a view of the Astrodome, NRG stadium and the Texas Medical Center from our offices on the 22nd floor. We will also regale you with stories about the old Houston Oilers practice field...even if you are not into that.

The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston (UTHealth) survived hurricane Harvey! All of the Registrar's Office staff experienced some impact from the storm. Some experienced mandatory and voluntary evacuations, one team member lost her car to flood waters and others were not able to get out of their subdivisions for days after the rains stopped. The University closed for a week, but through experience from prior storms and much preparation, experienced minimal flood damage. The lesson learned from hurricane Harvey is that PEOPLE ARE WILLING TO GO THE EXTRA MILE TO HELP OTHERS WHEN THE NEED IS REAL! The storm and rains were news worthy, but the bigger story is how Houstonians, fellow Texans and many people from other states put aside personal convenience, safety (and politics) to help people who experienced devastation. Thank you Texas and America for your prayers and for your actions during our time of need.

After a confusing start to the semester, life is returning to normal. We are back to talking normal again. Using terms like census day, CB reports, IPEDS, Hazlewood, and Enrollment Reporting. Moreover, repeating the ever-popular phrase, "No, it doesn't matter what your classmate told you we can't _____ (you fill in the blank)."

In more exciting news, we are going live in mid-October with version 9.2 of PeopleSoft Campus Solutions. The project has been ongoing for 11 months, as UTHealth staff have worked with a team of Sierra-Cedar consultants. The upgrade includes a new user interface and other features, which we are looking forward to rolling out for faculty and students. This upgrade includes fluid technology that will allow us to retire our mobile app - used minimally by our students - since this feature will now format to all user devices.

As always, Brenda, Stephanie, Lori, Jerry and Robert are looking forward to seeing everyone at the beach!

A New TACRAO Initiative!
TACRAO Session Sponsorship: Support for New TACRAO Presenters!
By Cié Gee and Kayla Larsen

How the idea for the TACRAO Session Sponsorship (TSS) was born!

From Cié...

Shortly after TACRAO 2016, I was talking with Kayla about all the fun we had at Horseshoe Bay. In remembering all the TACRAO conferences I had attended with her over the years, I tried to recall what presentations she had given. Kayla has been active at our university in a number of presentation like events and somehow my mind had projected that to TACRAO. She told me that she had never presented at TACRAO and that she didn't even know how to get the process started. First, I felt terrible as a seasoned TACRAO presenter that I had not been more diligent in encouraging and guiding Kayla in session proposals. Second, we promptly began working on session submissions. What I discovered was the ambiguity that Kayla was experiencing was the same ambiguity that I initially experienced. I began to wonder how many others felt the same way.

From Kayla...

My lack of presenting was not a fear of public speaking or not having the skillset. I've presented in different capacities. The process of the creation of a session was what overwhelmed me. How do I submit a proposal? Where do I submit a proposal? How do I prepare a 50-minute presentation? Where do I start? How do I come up with something to present on? My presentations really came from personal interests and experiences of my own, and Cié was actually the one who brought them out of me in our professional development related conversations. Once I told her why I hadn't submitted a proposal, she immediately offered to help me. She showed me how to develop a session description with key words, guided me on a timeline to work on my presentations, and has continuously given me solid feedback with my content. I'm now presenting/co-presenting three sessions at TACRAO and one at SACRAO!

What is the TACRAO Session Sponsorship?

Kayla and Cié took their experiences and created a proposal for a TACRAO sponsored program to provide a structured support network to TACRAO members for guidance on session submitting and presentations. Thus, the TACRAO Session Sponsorship (TSS) was created!

The TSS is a collaboration between a seasoned TACRAO session presenter and a TACRAO member who has never lead a session at TACRAO before (but would like to). This partnership would provide opportunity for TACRAO members who have never presented at an Annual Meeting to work with a seasoned presenter (sponsor) to:

- Generate session ideas and select a topic
- Create objectives and outline of session for a strong proposal submission
- Submit session proposal(s) for the next Annual Meeting (2018)
- If session is selected, develop the session including audience analysis, clear objectives, visual aids, and content
- Present at the Annual Meeting (either solo or with their Sponsor)
- Conduct a post-session review including analysis of audience feedback

Guidance and tools for the TSS will be provided. This program is voluntary. New presenters can still submit presentations on their own. The TSS is simply an available opportunity.

A New TACRAO Initiative!
TACRAO Session Sponsorship: Support for New TACRAO Presenters!
By Cié Gee and Kayla Larsen

3 Main Benefits of the TSS:

1. It provides networking across the state. By working on a session together, the networking and professional relationships grow deeper. Hopefully, this interaction would lead to further collaboration about best practices or other future sessions.
2. It creates another bridge between those that have been in TACRAO for many years with those who are new to the profession, or at least to the TACRAO experience. This creates leadership opportunities that will hopefully have a domino effect with the new session presenters eventually becoming session sponsors themselves.
3. We are blessed to be surrounded by the most intelligent, creative, and innovative colleagues. With this partnership, more ideas can be shared as more admissions and registrar professionals get involved in TACRAO sessions.

How do we get started?

The TEC has approved a pilot of this program beginning at the South Padre Island Conference this November 2017.

- There will be a booth set up at the Newcomers Welcome Event on Sunday. Please stop by for more information.
- A special session is offered during the conference for collaboration between presenters and newcomers and a discussion of the program more in-depth.
- Solicitation for participants and sponsors starts now! If you are interested, please email Cié or Kayla.

Insight and recommendations are welcomed from the membership, so please feel free to contact Kayla or Cié before the conference.

See you in South Padre!

sessions will be followed by Regional TACRAO Association meetings at 9:00 am. What a wonderful opportunity this will be to continue learning and networking.

Finally, I googled "weather in South Padre Island in November" and the results are worthy to be shared. The average high the first week of November in SPI is 76 degrees. The months of September – November were ranked by US Today as the best time to visit SPI. So, do not put up your flip flops and sandals, just yet.

While the weather sounds amazing, the articles also stress the threat of hurricanes is slight in November. Please keep your colleagues and friends in your thoughts that are still recovering from Hurricane Harvey. We had several TACRAO institutions affected by Harvey and their work continues. I encourage everyone to check on your peers periodically affected by the storm and no that we are here to support them!

Conference will be here before you know it. Leticia Bazan, VP of Admissions and myself have been working hard to bring conference participants amazing sessions. We have tons of new sessions this year. Here is a glimpse of some of the new sessions that will be presented:

- Developing a Graduate Student Professional Development Center
- Happiness, It's Happenin'!
- Traveling the Road of Middle Management
- In Transition: Before, During and After the Move to a New Position

Please make sure and check out the news article from Cie' Gee and Kayla Larsen on a new TACRAO initiative for new presenters. TSS – TACRAO Session Sponsorship is an initiative to provide new TACRAO presenters with seasoned TACRAO mentors to help new presenters receive help in presenting at TACRAO. A session on this new initiative will be offered on Monday, November 6, 2017 at 2:40 pm. Seasoned TACRAO presenters and those that would like to present are encouraged to attend to learn more about this program.

Also, Wednesday's agenda will be different than in the past. There will be sessions available at 8:00 am in the Convention Center and these

MICHELLE'S MEASLY MUSINGS

BY MICHELLE WALKER, TACRAO SECRETARY

Our college fairs are very popular! Many more schools outside the state of Texas have expressed interest in participating and our 2017-18 Subscriptions are at an all-time high! To date, 254 invoices have been sent, 220 have paid, and 34 remain unpaid. I am still getting requests for new subscriptions. This is our biggest and strongest revenue source so we want to serve these schools well. It is because of this outside participation that our membership dues remain so low.

The High School Relations Committee worked hard to finalize the College Day/Night Program Schedule and due to Hurricane Harvey is rescheduling some of the fairs at this time. Thank you to Michael Talamantes and the HS Relations Committee for their continued good work in setting up the college fairs!

I am pleased to report that all of the 2016-17 TACRAO Membership dues were paid and just in time for the 2017-18 billing!

2017-18 Membership Invoices (total = 160) were sent from our new membership database on Sunday, September 17, 2017. Invoices and instructions for paying the invoices were sent to the 'primary' contact for each institution. If your institution did not receive the invoice or you are unsure as to who may have received it, please login to the new member portal and determine who your primary contact is. If all else fails please contact me via tacraosecretary@gmail.com.

My term as Secretary is quickly coming to a close and I will miss talking to my TACRAO friends and the Subscribers. I will also miss being part of the Executive Committee meetings where you learn so much (some of which you dare not share)! It has been a privilege and a delight to get to know so many more of you and to serve you in this small way. In spite of the additional workload and my sometimes getting behind, you were always so kind and so quick to say thank you! So now I say 'thank you' for offering me this important role and allowing me to serve you. It has been an honor.

DORMAN'S DOLLARS

BY: JEREMY DORMAN, TREASURER

Hello TACRAO!

I trust that the Fall 2017 semester has been great for everyone. My thoughts and prayers have been with our friends in the gulf region as they rebound from Hurricane Harvey.

The LAC 2017 is hard at work finalizing details for another memorable conference in South Padre Island. Make sure you have made plans to attend this conference! I will be working on the annual financial reports to submit to the Audit Committee for their inspection. Also, updates to the Treasurer's procedure manual will be made as needed.

TACRAO is financially strong due to the TEC and their diligence in ensuring that we remain cost conscious to bring you another balanced annual financial report. Please do not hesitate to contact me concerning the finances of the organization or any questions that you may want to ask.

I am looking forward to seeing you all in South Padre Island!

The Heidelberg location is a privately owned school/residence facility within the heart of the city. While in Heidelberg, Bobbie also visited the Heidelberg Palace, which dates back to the early 1200s and is considered a significant palace from the Renaissance period. From the palace, you can see the location of UIW European Study Center.

The Strasbourg location is housed at the Chateau de Pourtales, which is a 250-year-old castle. While in Strasbourg, Bobbie had the opportunity to attend an open session of the European Union Parliament. The highlight of her trip was to visit the Haut-Koenigsbourg Castle, built around 1147.

STARAO NEWS

Good news from The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley:

The Office of the University Registrar (OUR) at UTRGV is happy to be introducing new team members to our TACRAO colleagues. Jessica Corona has joined the Scheduling Team, and Miriam Garcia was promoted to Scheduling Coordinator! Victoria Mayans joins the Student Records and Data Control area of the office and helps oversee transcript production and enrollment verifications. Angelo Peixoto is another new member of the Student Records and Data Control area. He assists with student records updates and monitoring registrar emails from students and faculty. Deby Guillen (promoted from another entry-level position) and Michelle Solis are new to the Degree Audit Team, and they are supervised by our new Assistant Registrar for Degree Audits, Mary DeLeon. The OUR has many new faces and we're excited that they represent continued commitment to improved student services and communication. These team members will be attending the TACRAO Conference at SPI this year. Be sure to introduce yourself if you see them and share your enthusiasm for the profession!

News from The University of Houston-Victoria:

Like other institutions in our area, the big news for UHV was Hurricane Harvey. Our city and surrounding area was hit pretty hard by Harvey and UHV sustained some extensive damage and was without power for over a week. Approximately 50 incoming FR students that had just moved into the dorms had to be evacuated to the University of Houston main campus (thank you Coogs!) due to the city's mandatory evacuation. Due to the damage to our dorms and a couple of large classrooms, we had to delay our first class day to September 11 which meant changes to deadlines, updating lots of PeopleSoft tables, lots of communications to students, etc. But in the end, we were able to start classes on September 11 and for the most part went smoothly. Many thanks to all of the TACRAO members for their thoughts during the hurricane and afterwards.
